Mrs. Fim Henderson and children of Augusta are the guests of Miss May Eshom of the Sixth Ward.

Rev. W. O. Cochrane left yesterday afternoon for Millersburg, to attend the meeting of Ebenezer Presbytery.

Mr. J. F. Fitzhugh and Miss Katie Fitzgerald of this city and Miss Josie Fitzgerald of Lexington are visiting Miss Theresa Irwin at Germantown.

Flemingsburg Gazette.—"George W. Wilt, Jr., went to Mayville last Thursday morning, where he was joined by Mr. Harry Albert of that city. They took the P. V. train for Philadelphia, where they go to enter upon a three years course in pharmacy."

Albert N. Huff has resigned as Deputy County Assessor.

Mr. Samuel Rosser of Fern Leaf and Miss Nannie Ricketts of Moraburg were married last evening at the Lawrence Creek Christian Church by the Rev. W. W. Hall. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rosser of this city.

The Bazar at Neptune Hall on October 10th, 11th and 12th will be given by Joe Heiser Post, G. A. R. Hon. W. O. Bradley will be present on Saturday, October 12th, while Hon. P. Wat Hardin has been invited and will more than likely be present also.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Disaster Came to a Wedding Party—Three Ladies Injured.

The wedding of Mr. Samuel Rosser and Miss Nannie Ricketts at Lawrence Creek Christian Church last evening culminated in a most unfortunate accident.

Among the attendants from this city were Mrs. William Rosser, Misses Lottie and Pearl Rosser and Miss Ollie Ellison, mother, sisters and cousin of the groom, respectively.

They had gone out in one of Daulton Bros. fine hacks, in charge of Charles Beckley, a most careful driver, whose team was perfectly gentle.

After the wedding ceremony the guests started for the Ricketts home, a short distance away, but which is reached by a rough and narrow road.

At one of the worst places in the road the hack was capsized, falling over a bank several feet high.

Fortunately for Miss Pearl, she escaped without injury.

Mrs. Rosser sustained a frightful cut in the forehead, besides several bruises; Miss Lottie received painful injuries to her ankle and arm, while Miss Ellison was less fortunate than the rest.

She suffered a crushed ankle and a severe flesh wound at that point, besides numerous painful bruises.

Miss Ellison is from Virginia, is on a visit to her cousins, and was to have returned to her home in a few days.

All the injured were promptly placed in another conveyance and brought to their home on East Fifth street, where they are resting as easily as could be expected.

The accident cast a gloom over the entire wedding party; but it was most fortunate indeed that its results were not more serious.

The hack is badly damaged, but this is of small concern as compared with injury to person.

After the hack and team went over the bank the horses stood perfectly still.

If they had started to run the ladies must have met a terrible fate.

HOW IT ALWAYS WORKS.

They tried to choose a jury—twelve honest men to find.

Distinguished for their absolute vacuity of mind.

One candidate was challenged because he brought to view

Some little trace of intellect—and that would never do!

The next was dropped directly, as quick as you could wink.

Because he said when he was young he sometimes used to think.

The next was turned away in haste without a second look.

For he imprudently confessed he once had read a book.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect for the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNAL.

White streamer—FAIR.

Blue—RAIN or SNOW.

With Black ABOVE—TWO WATERS grow.

If Black's BENEATH—GOLDEN will be!

Unless Black's shown—no chance we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening.

We respectfully invite the comparison of THE LEDGER with any other daily newspaper in all

Northeastern Kentucky. If any one can find a daily paper printed in the Ninth Congressional District that has

A Larger Circulation, or More Original Reading Matter,

we will take pleasure in presenting him with a year's subscription to THE LEDGER.

And this paper is furnished at same price as inferior ones.

A Young Men's Republican Club has been organized at Flemingsburg.

Rev. James I. Kendrick is the new Pastor of the Baptist Church at Flemingsburg.

The County Clerk of Fleming county issued five marriage licenses in one day last week.

The First Presbyterian Church of Mt. Sterling is making preparations to celebrate its 100th anniversary.

Mrs. Katie Bierley kindly invites the public to her Millinery display on Friday and Saturday, October 4th and 5th.

One lot of household goods for sale cheap. Must go within a few days.

D. P. Holt, 208 West Second street.

With but little care and no trouble the beard and mustache can be kept a uniform brown or black color by using Buckingham's Dye for the whiskers.

Mrs. Dr. J. T. Wall of Flemingsburg, the venerable mother of Mrs. W. H. Means of this city, who has been quite ill for several days, is some better.

Intending to withdraw from business on October 1st, all persons indebted to me will please call and settle at once.

Mrs. JOHN O'DONNELL.

Mrs. L. V. Davis has received the first invoice of Fall and Winter Millinery, bought direct from the importing houses in New York and selected in person for her trade. Remember the place—Zweigart's Block.

The universal prevalence of scrofula is a fact well known to physicians. The only medicine that has hitherto proved a specific for this dreadful complaint is Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which expels every germ of poison from the blood. You cannot begin to use it too soon.

The Ananias Fishing Club of Flemingsburg came down last night and left at once for Gauley, W. Va., for its annual take-in of fish and put-out of lies. Editor Duley headed the aggregation, of course.

The alarm last midnight was caused by a small blaze at the plumbing establishment of Traxel & Smith, West Second street. It originated in a pile of rubbish, into which some one had probably thrown a cigar butt. Loss trifling.

The South Carolina Constitutional Convention has adopted a section of the new Constitution prohibiting divorce for any cause whatever and forbidding recognition of divorces granted in other states. The state has never had a divorce law.

The Flemingsburg Gazette says: "We announce this week the marriage of Mr. James B. McCreary, our popular County Clerk, and Miss Susie D. Fox of Mason county, to take place at the Christian Church in Mayville on Thursday, October 17th, 1895. No invitations will be issued, but all friends of the contracting parties are invited."

Fresh Oysters.

I will receive daily fresh Bulk Oysters, and families wanting them nice can get them in any quantity. P. Lutz & Co.

In the County Court at Newport Monday articles of incorporation of the Oligonunk Company were filed by W. H. Horton of Newport, Thomas A. Garrigan, George F. Gunnip and Horace Dunbar of Cincinnati and C. B. Ryan of Norwood. The capital stock is $8,000, divided into 400 shares of $20 each. The election of officers takes place on October 1st of each year.

WELL, S-A-Y!

HAS ANYBODY BEEN COLLECTING ILLEGAL FEES?

The Police Judge and Chief of Police Present Unique Bills to the Mason Fiscal Court.

Among the many claims presented to the Fiscal Court yesterday were the following:

Mason County Fiscal Court

To A. A. WADSWORTH, Police Judge City of Mayville.

1895.

August 16th. To presiding in case of John Grant, colored, charge petit larceny, 1 day. $ 2.00

August 28th. To presiding in case of Jack Ramsey, colored, charge petit larceny, 1 day. $ 2.00

September 16th. To presiding in case of John Holliday, charge petit larceny, 1 day. $ 2.00

Total $ 6.00

The undersigned is confirmed in the opinion derived from an express Statute on the subject (see § 170, General Statutes of Kentucky,) that no officer of the law is entitled to his fees unless collected from the defendant.

This account is, therefore, rendered with this view, to-wit: If the Honorable Court shall see fit to disregard the Statute and allow one claim, I feel but just to present mine likewise, for the same treatment, at the same time repeating my conviction that such an allowance is in open violation of law. Respectfully,

A. A. WADSWORTH, Police Judge City of Mayville.

Mason County Fiscal Court

To D. P. ORT, Chief of Police, City of Mayville.

In the Court of Jacob Miller, J. P. M. C.—1895.

May 13th. Commonwealth vs. Edward Hyatt, charge breach of peace. $ 1.00

Summoning 4 witnesses, @ 20c. 80

May 13th. Commonwealth vs. Charles Jones, charge of being drunk. 1.00

Summoning 1 witness. 20

In Police Court—

August 16th. Commonwealth vs. John Grant, colored, charge petit larceny. 1.00

Summoning 1 witness. 20

August 28th. Commonwealth vs. Jack Ramsey, charge petit larceny. 1.00

Summoning 3 witnesses, @ 20c. 60

September 16th. Commonwealth vs. John Holliday, charge petit larceny. 1.00

Summoning 1 witness. 20

Total $ 7.00

Gentlemen: I concur in the statement attached to the account of Judge Wadsworth, that I find, upon consultation of those who profess to know the law and construe the Statute referred to, that an allowance of all such claims would be in violation of law. I, therefore, present my foregoing account with this conviction impressed upon me, and do not desire that it be allowed unless your Honorable body sees fit to ignore the Statute and allow others, when, in such a case, I feel that it is but just to allow mine likewise. Respectfully, etc.,

D. P. ORT, Chief of Police.

Mrs. L. V. Davis is now ready to show a most beautiful line of Trimmed Millinery.

Important meeting of Wyandotte Tribe, I. O. R. M., tonight at 7 o'clock at Wigwam. A full attendance desired.

The Louisville Conference at Madisonville adopted a resolution declaring the use of tobacco an evil, and recommending that all members abstain from the use of it.

At Tuesday's registration Democratic committeemen were voted for, these being elected:

First Ward—W. C. Pelham.

Second Ward—Dr. John A. Reed.

Third Ward—T. M. Pearce.

Fourth Ward—John W. Alexander.

Fifth Ward—George W. Crowell.

Sixth Ward—C. Burgess Taylor.

QUIET HOME WEDDING.

A Texas Gentleman Wins One of Mayville's Fair Ladies.

The marriage of Miss Hattie R. Hamilton and Dr. George A. Harper took place Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in East Mayville, Rev. D. P. Holt officiating.

A few of the intimate friends, besides the immediate members of the family, were present to witness the nuptial ceremony and join in the congratulations.

The wedding was a quiet one, owing to the illness of the bride's father.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Captain and Mrs. J. Hamilton. She wore a very pretty traveling costume of broadcloth.

The groom is the eldest son of the late Dr. Harper of Minden, La.

The happy couple left immediately on the 9 o'clock train and will go by the way of the Atlanta Exposition to their future home at Bonham, Texas, where the groom is engaged in the practice of dentistry.

SUCH A DINNER!

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Slattery Dine the Fiscal Court.

Yesterday at high noon, and by special invitation of Mr. Edward J. Slattery, Superintendent of the Mason County Infirmary, the members of the Fiscal Court took an Eastbound streetcar, and they didn't dismount until they reached the county's most splendid charity, the County Infirmary.

Among the invited guests was THE LEDGER scribe; and it can be established that he was very much in evidence when it came to discussing the menu; moreover, he is fortunate to survive the feast of choice things provided by Superintendent Slattery and his good wife.

Next to the sumptuous dinner, it was pleasing to note the air of good order and cleanliness that prevailed everywhere about the cottages and grounds,—a state of affairs highly creditable to the new Superintendent, and full assurance of the fact that the Fiscal Court made no mistake when they elected Mr. Slattery to that responsible position.

SENSATIONAL DIVORCE.

A Prominent Mason Countyman Sued at Covington.

A suit for divorce was filed at Covington Monday which will create considerable interest in this county.

The suit was brought by Senator William Goebel for Mrs. Addison P. Gooding, wife of Hon. Addison P. Gooding, one of the richest farmers in Mason county, and for two terms a Representative of this county in the State Legislature.

The plaintiff is a sister of Mrs. George F. Eaton and Mrs. William Whitehead of Covington, and is at present the guest of Mrs. Eaton at her handsome residence on Garrard street.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Gooding have been married twice and have children by the former marriages.

The only child of the union which is now sought to be dissolved is a daughter 5 years old, who is with her mother.

The Goodings were married in 1884.

In her petition Mrs. Gooding makes a general allegation of cruel and inhuman treatment.

She specifically alleges that on one day in September just past her husband attempted to shoot her with a pistol and was prevented only by the interference of other persons.

She alleges that he has threatened to transfer his property in order to defraud her of her right of alimony, and prays for an injunction to prevent the transfer.

Mr. Gooding owns 500 acres of land in Mason county, and he is reckoned one of the wealthiest men of the county.

Pigs For Sale!

Dr. A. N. Ellis, living on the Ohio side three miles above here, has a fine lot of Poland China pigs for sale, running from 60 to 100 pounds each.

"NIGGAH" DOMINATION.

The Dead-Beat R. W. Christian "Working" the Democrats.

The following letters will explain themselves. Read, and see the Janus-faced hypocrisy of the whole Democratic Campaign Committee, of which Mr. Long is the head:

LOUISVILLE, KY., July 8th, 1895.

To Whom it May Concern: Rev. R. W. Christian and others are having published a book on Southern sentiment in the interest of the colored people of the South from a colored Democratic standpoint, and such a work will doubtless accomplish much good, and I take pleasure both in recommending the work and the cause, and bespeak for Rev. Mr. Christian and co-laborers such aid and encouragement as a liberal spirit should justify. Very respectfully,

CHARLES R. LONG.

PRINCETON, KY., September 23d, 1895.

The Commercial, Louisville, Ky.—Gentlemen: Hardin's Democratic Negro Christian had a joint debate here a few weeks ago with a colored Republican, and after he left I found this inclosed letter of recommendation from Charles R. Long on the stand where they debated. The Democrats of the state cry "Nigga, Nigga, Nigga domination," with such great lung power and brainless demonstrations that it is simply a wonder to us Western Kentucky Republicans that Mr. Long could get over his scare long enough to write this recommendation. I send it to you as a relic of the patriotism of the Democratic party and their love for the poor Nigga. Your friend,

S. T. MOORE, Chairman Republican County Committee of Caldwell County.

HON. JOHN P. MCCARTNEY.

A Brief Sketch of This Talented Young Man's Life.

Lexington Leader.

Hon. John P. McCartney of Flemingsburg, one of the best known Republicans in the state, is taking an active interest in the present state campaign.

He has made two or three public speeches since the campaign opened, and will make many more before the campaign closes.

Mr. McCartney was the Republican nominee for Congress in 1892 from the Ninth Kentucky District. He made a splendid race and came near defeating Thomas H. Paynter, his opponent.

John P. McCartney was born in Fleming county on February 27th, 1861. His father, John C. McCartney, was a native of Carlisle, Pa., while his mother, who was Miss Mary Dent, was a Kentuckian, a native of the same county as her talented son.

The whole life of John P. McCartney has been spent in the county of his birth. He graduated from Center College, Danville, in 1880. His aim in life was to become a lawyer, and soon after his graduation he began the study of this profession with the firm of Andrews & Sudduth, the well known practitioners of Flemingsburg. He was admitted to the bar in 1882 and in the same year formed a partnership with Gilbar A. Cassidy and began to practice in Flemingsburg. His ability was readily discernible, and he today stands in the front rank among the lawyers of this section of the state.

His love for politics early manifested itself. In 1884, when but 23 years of age, he was the candidate for Presidential Elector in the Ninth District on the Republican ticket. He was an ardent admirer of James G. Blaine, and his valuable work in that memorable campaign was the foundation of his political life, to which he has added in later years so magnificently. He is engaged in the practice of the legal profession at Flemingsburg, and is identified with numerous enterprises, though not actively engaged.

While it is in the political field that Mr. McCartney is most widely known, his private life is none the less worthy of emulation. In his own county, where he was born and raised and among the people with whom he has spent his whole life, he is held in the highest respectability and esteem. His name is a synonym for honesty, industry and good behavior. Against his name a word of reproach has never been given a moment's credence. In scholarly and legal attainments there is no young man in the state who is his superior. He is a master of the art of debate and argument. As an orator he possesses powers of no mean ability. He has a pleasant voice and an admirable style of delivery. His public speeches always command the closest and most respectful attention among his hearers. He has a trained knowledge of the leading political issues of the day, which he can impart to others gracefully and intelligently on the stump.

In appearance John P. McCartney is tall, straight and handsome, a splendid specimen of young Kentucky manhood. He is a man whom it is a pleasure to meet under all circumstances.
